

Likely policy scenarios for mountain summer farming: cultural heritage and climate resilience

- Background/framework: International research project "Mitigation and Adaptation in Cultural Heritage Landscapes: Lessons from Transhumant Pastoral Systems for Managing Novel Climate Risks" (<https://prosjektbanken.forskningsradet.no/project/FORISS/352110>)
- Objective: Reveal options and alternatives, identify points of agreement and disagreement, clarify arguments, and uncover the strength of evidence associated with diverse viewpoints
- Method: 'Policy Delphi': Expert panel, Structured interviews with policy makers, Explanatory surveys, Develop likely policy scenarios, Participatory farmer workshops (Loë et al. 2016, <https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S0040162515004138>)
- Language: Interviews in Norwegian, thesis preferably in English
- Collaboration partner / external supervisor: NIBIO - Norwegian Institute of Bioeconomy

(Maybe) Interested? – Please contact: sebastian.eiter@nibio.no / tlf. 974 81 109